

DIRECTOR OF WORSHIP AND MUSIC

The person we are looking for to fill the position of Director of Worship and Music at Elfinwild Presbyterian Church will be:

- passionately in love with Jesus and desiring for others to know Him
- conversant with worship music in a wide variety of styles
- comfortable directing vocal and instrumental groups of all ages
- collaborative in leadership style providing opportunities for others to grow in their own gifts of leadership and musical direction
- organized and capable of planning and designing weekly Christ centered worship services that are both traditional and creative, incorporating a wide range of musical tastes that are relevant for all ages
- a team player with excellent communication skill who places a high value on relationships
- A communication facilitator who can be found in conversation with ages from 3 to 90 and is excited about being part of an intergenerational community
- desires to be a permanent member of an established church family and does not see Elfinwild simply as a means to advance to the next level in a music career
- able to work with existing groups, helping us to expand and grow but not reinventing us

Our candidate will have a high skill level in music direction and be capable of fulfilling the following responsibilities:

- Direct or oversee the direction of adult, youth, and children's choirs, praise team, bell choirs, and various instrumental groups
- Interface with current music, worship, and sound technology
- Identify, hire, and supervise part time accompanist/instrumentalist who will provide skilled service playing and accompaniment for all music groups
- Organize and coordinate multiple music groups across all ages and worship styles
- Choose and prepare music from a wide range of styles that appropriately contributes to seasonal and sermon themes
- Plan all aspects of worship services in collaboration with pastoral staff.

Bachelor's Degree in Music required, Master's Degree in Music preferred.
